

The Amistad Long Island Black Bar Association will be hosting a meeting to address voter protection on Monday, November 6, 2017 at the Wyandanch Library, 14 South 20th Street, Wyandanch, New York 11798 at 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. This meeting is for anyone interested in working on Election Day as a Poll Watcher.

We have an unprecedented number of Black Candidates seeking office this November on every level throughout Long Island- Check out the list below:

Kevan Abrahams, Nassau County Legislature
Dean Bennett, Nassau County Clerk
Siela Bynoe, Nassau County Legislature
Maxine Broderick, District Court Judge
Hon. Jerald S. Carter, Nassau County Court Judge
Valerie Cartright, Brookhaven Town Council
Tracey Edwards, Town of Huntington Supervisor
Dorothy Goosby, Town of Hempstead Councilwoman
Hon Duwayne Gregory, Suffolk County Legislature
Hon. Darlene Harris, District Court Judge
James Lamarre, Nassau County Legislature
Geoffrey Prime, District Court Judge
Viviana Russell, Town of North Hempstead Council
Carrie Solages, Nassau County Legislature
Dr. William Spencer, Suffolk County Legislature
Charlene Thompson, Nassau County Legislature
Errol Toulon, Suffolk County Sherriff
Roger Williams, City of Glen Cove Council

We are organizing to make sure that our community is able to exercise their right to vote. AMISTAD will train anyone who is willing to advocate for individuals to vote.

REAL CHANGE starts with US in our communities NOW!

We cannot afford to wait three years to steer the ship in the right direction. If you live in Malverne or Montauk and have one or 12 hours to spare on election day, you should be at the meeting Monday Night to gain the tools necessary to protect our community and ensure good government and Justice on Long Island.